My dear Mr. Chapman.

I have just heard from my client about the coins. He would like to have No 6 for which you ask $14,00 and No 10 for which you ask $4,00 according to your letter but he says the price for No 6 is too high. He tells me that he

Can get one from Prosky in mint state but not the same coin, although as rare for $10.00 and he would take this also for $10.00 if you will let him have it.

I told him your price was fourteen, and I only received a Commision of 10 % for making the sale but I said I would write and ask you if you would let it go for ten before I return the Coins.

Kindly let me know your pleasure in the matter and allow me to suggest that if it is possible to let the Coin go for ten dollars, that you let me know at once and I will send you a check for the two Coins perhaps.

I hope to hear from you.

Yours truly
L. J. Norton
